

タイトル Welcome Speech

本文

Good morning everyone, it's nice to finally meet all of you. My name is Paul Simon Hernandez. You can call me Paul or Paul-sensei. I come from Manila, Philippines, and I will be your new ALT. Before coming to Japan, I was a high school chemistry teacher, as well as a light music club advisor. My hobbies include anime and manga, videogames, musical composition, and photography. Currently, I am having fun learning about Japan, its culture and its language. I hope that all of you will also enjoy your time learning about the English language.

As a small piece of advice, please remember that the first step to improving at a skill is to enjoy doing it. So, if you want to talk about something or if you want to practice English, feel free to talk to me when you see me. Whether it's in perfect English, not-so-perfect English, or even in Japanese, it will be okay as long as we can enjoy speaking to each other and learning from each other. Thank you very much. よろしくお願ひします。
